

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Bob McLean

Release 08-4

703-416-0060, bmclean@photosafety.org

Photoluminescent Safety Association 2009 Annual Conference Scheduled for March 8-10 in San Diego

Arlington, VA, July 28, 2008—The Photoluminescent Safety Association will hold its third annual conference and annual business meeting March 8-10 in San Diego, CA. The event will be held at the Marriott Courtyard. The room rate will be $189 a night. Registration will begin in December.

Speakers and panels will discuss the future of the photoluminescent industry, including the status of proposed codes and standards changes being considered or recently approved by such bodies as the International Code Council, International Standards Organization, Underwriters Laboratories, and ASTM International, and by local and state governments.

During the annual conference the PSA will also holds its annual business meeting on March 10. The meeting agenda includes elections to fill any board vacancies. The members also consider other issues affecting the association's strategic direction.

The registration fee for the two-day conference is $___ until February 15, $___ after that date. The fee for additional registrants from the same organization is $___ until February 15, $500 after that date. For a registration form send an email to info@plsafety.org. A special registration option will be available to nonmembers who only want to hear the speakers on the second day.

A limited number of hotel rooms are available from March 8-10 for $199. The hotel reservation deadline is February 14. To reserve a hotel room call 800-321-2211 for reservation and ask for the PSA is dedicated to generating broad-based acceptance of safety-grade photoluminescent products. Photoluminescent products improve safety through such products as exit signs, low-level aggress pathway marking systems, and general safety signage.

###